RE: Odenbach Receivable

December 17, 2012

For several years the Town of West Seneca has allowed the Odenbach, a charitable organization to sponsor a soccer tournament at the West Seneca Soccer Park. No written contract was prepared specifying the rights and responsibilities of the town and the Odenbach in any year the tournament was held nor were the fees or additional charges specified in any document.

Organizers of the tournament do not believe that they were not notified that additional charges would be imposed and they did not set an entry fee high enough to cover the addition charges. The additional charges in 2012 total $1,016.

Since the town cannot determine if the Odenbach was properly notified of the additional charges I request that the $1,016 in charges be waived for the 2012 tournament.
