DEER CONTROL EFFORTS

Beverly Leising questioned the status of deer control efforts. Chief Denz responded there has been a steady decrease in car/deer accidents over recent years and only 80 for this year so far, so the percentage is small considering the amount of traffic in town. He further stated the City of Lackawanna has a deer control program in effect and a number of private businesses in town also have permits.

UNION CONTRACT NEGOTIATIONS

Beverly Leising questioned the status of union contract negotiations and Supervisor Meegan responded they are currently working with the police and reviewing the health care.

ISSUES OF THE PUBLIC

CARRIAGE PARK SIDEWALK

Mike Wach commented on a hazardous condition with the sidewalk in front of 213 Carriage Park, noting the house at that address is abandoned. He questioned who is responsible if someone is injured due to the sidewalk. Town Attorney John Fenz responded in accordance with Town Code sidewalks are the property owner's responsibility.

SEWER DEPARTMENT SALARIES

Mike Wach referred to a recent newspaper article on overtime in the sewer department.

Councilman Hart responded the sewer department employees are also highway department employees, so they receive overtime for sewer calls after hours and also for snow plowing. The overtime is supervised, but there were unique situations last year including two floods, a blizzard in January and the November snowstorm that contributed to this overtime.

Councilman Hanley noted they have started negotiations with the union to create a sewer department and remove those employees from the highway department, which will alleviate the overtime.

Susan Kims understood the town was in the process of fixing the sewers so the department can be turned over to Erie County.

Town Engineer Steven Tanner stated there are three sewer projects that still need to be done and at completion they will sit down with Erie County Sewer Department. He further noted the camera work is now being done by town employees rather than contracting out to a private company, and that is saving hundreds of thousands of dollars.

PLANNING AND ZONING BOARD CONTACT INFORMATION

Susan Kims questioned why contact information for Planning & Zoning Board members was removed from the town's website.

Town Clerk Jacqueline Felser responded the email link was not setup properly and the IT people were in the process of fixing it.

MEETING MINUTES AVAILABILITY

Susan Kims commented that minutes for some of the boards within the town are not available within two weeks as required by law.

Town Attorney John Fenz stated minutes should be available within two weeks pursuant to the Freedom of Information Law and the secretaries to the various boards make an effort to post them to the website in a timely manner.

Supervisor Meegan questioned if Mrs. Kims was referring to the Zoning Board minutes and asked Mr. Fenz to communicate with the secretary to that board and advise her of the requirements.

INSTANT TICKETING SYSTEM FOR CODE VIOLATIONS

Susan Kims questioned the status of the instant ticketing system for code violations. Code Enforcement Officer John Gullo responded that Lackawanna has been using the system and there are still a few problems with it.

TOTE STORAGE

Susan Kims commented on the storage of totes, noting they should not be visible from the street. Code Enforcement Officer John Gullo stated he is working on an informational article on this issue for the newspaper and his office has been citing people and instructing them where to store the totes.

RESIDENTIAL WIND TURBINES

Susan Kims expressed concern about the possibility of residential wind turbines in town. Code Enforcement Officer John Gullo responded the Town Code limits wind turbines to zoning districts C-1, C-2, M-1 or M-2.
