COMMUNICATIONS

Mr. Kavanaugh stated he is in favor of staggering Ethics Board members' terms and volunteered to resign at the end of the year.

Chairperson Teager stated he was brought into a discussion regarding larger corporations that will not complete the vendor disclosure forms and was asked to discuss this with the Ethics Board. Chairperson Teager stated that in past communications Town Attorney Trapp had suggested that all companies doing business with the town are required to complete the disclosure form regardless of size. Ms. Leonard questioned if this is a company policy of larger corporations. Chairperson Teager supposed that a corporation may provide a disclosure if New York State requires one due to its size, but not the Town of West Seneca. Mr. Kavanaugh questioned if the town would have access to a disclosure provided to New York State and stated this would be acceptable if the town had access. Mr. Kavanaugh stated another consideration would be if the disclosure is a condition of a contract with the town.
