DESCRIPTION

Our Heavy Duty Standard Reach electric seal model has an estimated life of at least 200,000 impressions and requires just a touch of a button to make a perfect impression. The direct drive has only two moving parts to provide for long life and the metal engraved master die and metal counter die insures a quality impression. This unit allows for an impression of approximately 2 3/8" from the paper's edge and accepts the same die sizes as our Standard Unit (dies are not interchangeable on this unit). The Heavy Duty Standard Reach electric embosser has a two year warranty and is strong enough to withstand even a staple or paperclip without damage to the die. Machine weight is 12 pounds.
