I am grateful for the opportunity of being able to work here as a public safety dispatcher for the last year and a half. I appreciate all of the support everyone at this department gave me even when I was struggling at times. Thank you for sticking with me and showing me the ropes of a what a career as a first responder entails. I gained a lot of valuable experience from every dispatcher and officer here and hope to use what I've learned going forward as I begin my new career.
