

The Town of West Seneca zoning map is available as a reference resource. The zoning changes frequently so we have the map updated when possible. We encourage people to contact our office for confirmation of what the zoning actually is for a property. Please note that you may have the proper zoning, but will need building permits to complete the project . even if it is a tenant change.

Thank you for your cooperation.